On October 24, 2019, Member of the Public (Desiree Hastey) reached out to the District regarding the request to hold a candlelight vigil in honor of Leah Smith, a Wheatland High School student and Plumas Lake resident, who had passed away after a traffic collision. The requested date and times of the event were requested to be on October 27th from 5:30 pm to 10:00 pm. Staff decided to approve the request with the stipulation to the requestor that the Board of Directors would be asked to ratify the event at the next regular Board Meeting, and that the Board may require a deposit and/or fee for the event. The Requestor was also told that Yuba County Ordinance 8.76.030 would need to be waived.
